

A Professional Training Program funded by the National Cancer Institute

[COURSES AVAILABLE IN 2011, 2012, 2013]

Course will be offered:

July 13-15, 2011

Location: Anaheim, CA

Application deadline: Feb 1, 2011

Free Registration & Course Materials

$350 lodging stipend at Disney's Paradise Pier Hotel (Course site)

- The primary aim of this oncology educational initiative is to implement a national education program for professionals to improve support for oncology family caregivers.
- The program aims to educate competitively chosen multidisciplinary teams of two from cancer institutions across the nation to improve support for oncology family caregivers.
- Three-day courses that provide professional education based on the physical, psychological, social, and spiritual domains of quality of life for oncology family caregivers

For additional information please visit:
www.cityofhope.org/oncfamilycaregivers
Email: familycaregiver@coh.org

